PETITIONING THE COURT

☒ To issue a warrant. ☐ To issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation of Mandatory Condition No. 1: “The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.”

Violation of Special Condition: “The defendant shall abstain from the use of alcohol and all other intoxicants during his term of supervision.”

Nature of Noncompliance: On July 4, 2020 at approximately 5am, the Austin Police Department and Travis County Sheriff’s Office responded to a 911 call for help at the 7-11 convenience store located in the 15000 block of FM 1825. According to the Travis County Sheriff’s Office Affidavit for Warrant of Arrest and Detention, the caller reported she was assaulted at 1418 Mangrum Street by her child’s father, Jeremy Fulton. The female victim reported she was in town from Houston to celebrate her son’s birthday with Fulton and his family. She had fallen asleep in her hotel room and missed multiple calls from Fulton. She drove to his home at approximately 4:30am. When she arrived at the residence, Fulton was angry with her and told her to leave. As she walked to her vehicle, Fulton grabbed for her keys and struck her in the face with a closed fist. The victim ran in between two cars and Fulton got on top of her. She reported he strangled her with both of his hands until she lost consciousness. When she came to, the victim ran across FM 1825 to the convenience store where she called 911. She was observed to have bloodied and swollen lips; contusions to her left eye to include blood in the outer white of the eye; multiple bloodied scratch marks on both sides of her throat, neck, chin, and behind her ears; scratches on her left shoulder; abrasions to the back of her left hip; and dried blood on her shorts. In an Assault Victim Statement, the victim reported Fulton has strangled her on two prior occasions. The victim was evaluated by emergency medical personnel on site; however, declined further medical treatment.

The same date at approximately 7:15am, Fulton called the Probation Officer. He reported that he and his child’s mother had a physical altercation in his front yard early the same morning. He continued that the pair had been consuming alcohol at a local hotel when a verbal altercation ensued. He left the hotel and returned home to avoid further confrontation. His child’s mother came to his home at approximately 4am and woke the whole family by verbally making a scene. He related they took their verbal argument outside; however, the argument turned physical and both parties assaulted one another, at which time his child’s mother walked away from his home and he returned inside. Fulton noted he was aware that law enforcement would be looking for him as his child’s mother had contacted his mother about the altercation.
